Do you feel happy and safe at our school?

- We feel happy at school.
- Sometimes members of the public stand by the fence and it makes us not feel safe.
- Yes. we are surrounded by our friends, the teachers help us when we need it and talk to us about things that might be worrying us.
- Teachers watch us play
- Gates all around the school.
- Yes because there are teachers to support us.
- I always come in with a smile on my face it makes me happy to be here.
- Sometimes.
- We feel happy and safe in the classroom, but we don't always feel happy and safe in the dinner hall or outside at playtime: People run around, bash into you and say mean things outside; Staff make you eat more food when you don't want to.
- I feel happy as I am always included in everything.
- The teachers make me feel safe
- I feel happy and safe at this school because the older people and teachers keep us safe.

What do you think about the behaviour at our school?

- Sometimes children are too rough with each other.
- Children are sometimes rude.
- Some of the year 5 and year 6 children are sometimes bossy and rude.
- It's good but takes children a while to settle after a holiday,
- I have seen some fights,
- some children are rowdy,
- sometimes older children are not nice to younger children,
- Arguments about football and people get really angry.
- Not everyone listens and they don't care sometimes.
- People lie.
- Sometimes when playing football children kick the ball in the windows leaving dirt marks.
- Overall good but some children have a habit of being naughty and mean to others.
- Some children don't have respect for each other.
- Cheeky children but not really naughty children.
- Some children make children upset due to fights, arguments or being rude in partners.
- Football makes the dinner staff angry when there are lots of disagreements.
- Behaviour needs to improve, as children get upset by what others say.
- Immediate consequences when children are not listening or showing respect.

What do you think of our Rainbow Rules & our Rewards & Discipline system?

- We like the rainbow rules to ensure children know how to behave.
- Reminds children how to behave.
- We like good to be green.
- Children who go in the behaviour book miss good to be green which we agree with
- The school behaviour system is good
- Rainbow rules teach children to be respectful
- Dojos encourage children to do well,
- Make the rainbow rules stand out and put them everywhere.
- We don't really use the traffic lights.
- We would like more rewards like dojos and golden tickets.
- We get in trouble at playtime and dinnertime for things that we wouldn't get in trouble for in class.
- Sometimes we get in trouble outside when we haven't really done anything wrong.
- We like the rewards
- Some children are not bothered about moving down the traffic lights but some are.
- Children who have been repeatedly spoken to in lessons or playtimes should not be allowed in any fun activities
- Golden ticket winners should be rewarded every single week and have a special treat each week.
- Parents should be informed when children are doing amazing each week (certificates home, text message when receive golden tickets).
- Reward the green and gold children more.
- More dojos given out weekly.
- More parental involvement for children that do not follow the rules.
