Do you have any suggestions of how these sessions can be improved?

- If any student is backward in study, you should improve the skill of the student
- 'Tuesday' is a good day for me
- It's already very good session
- No suggestions
- No, very good. Doing a good job with learning sessions
- Some children are being distracted by their friendship - so, some friends should be separated and told to focus
- This learning session is quite good! But I will suggest teachers if they can tell on notebooks what the children have been doing in school, like what topic they cover so that we are aware and try to concentrate on this too.
- No changes needed. It's a fantastic opportunity to see the kids in action.
